

Your HOMETOWN ENQUIRER

Saturday
February 9, 2008

More news online
at Cincinnati.Com

SE section

Anderson Township | Daddy's dancing girl

The Enquirer/Amanda Davidson

Randy Bachman and his daughter, Brianne, 8, dance to the beat during the Anderson Township Daddy-Daughter Dance at Starlite Ballroom on Feb. 2.
MORE PHOTOS / 9

Provided photo

Allie Strong and Mr. Redlegs are among those posing with the check from the Cincinnati Reds Community Fund to the Milford DECA program.

Reds fund boosts DECA

Coat-checking good for $1,094 / 7

News/13

lar/2

in the unity/8-9

arts Fund

er/13

News/10-11

/11

MONTH

ter team

& Museum railroad Free-special promo-
The first 1,000 & Museum in class will receive inon bobble-discount on Robinson 1965 and in merican manag-ducted into
2. For more iname section of

Cincinnati Reds

pet
T

pictures with finalists. Visit inaday and help
ke home prizes

JOHN NOLAN SUPERSTORE
Over 120 USED CARS in stock ready for delivery
JohnNolan.com ✓ Quality Checked Certified Preowned Ridge & Highland Avenue
1-866-849-3501

DADDY-DAUGHTER DANCE

Girls ages 2-12 and fathers boogie down at event organized by the Anderson Township Park District

Photos by Amanda Davidson/The Enquirer

John and Allison Stith, 8, have fun at the Daddy-Daughter Dance in Anderson Township.

ABOVE: Daddies and daughters from Anderson Township came to dance at the Starlite Ballroom on Saturday.

RIGHT: Scott and Samantha Colglazier, 4, hold hands and dance to the beat at the Starlite Ballroom.

Fathers and daughters take to the floor at the Starlite Ballroom.