One day after an open forum news conference held by the foster mother of missing three-year-old Marcus Fiesel, the Hamilton County Sheriff's Department released new photos of the child from the mother's collection. Photos released to the media to this point have been grainy or of generally poor quality.

The sheriff's department hopes that the new images will be useful in the search for Marcus, now missing for over a week. As continues to be the case, if you see Marcus, call your local police or 911. A local restaurateur, Jeff Ruby, is offering a $10,000 reward for his safe return.
