Nominate honorees for 'Run to Remember'

ANDERSON TWP.- Honoree nominations for the Anderson Township Park District's fifth annual "Run to Remember" Sept. 6 at Beech Acres Park, are due by Feb. 15.

According to Marketing Manager Allison Cottrill, nomination forms can be downloaded online at AndersonParks.com, or picked up at the Juilfs Park Office at 8249 Clough Pike, in Anderson Township. People can submit them at the same location.

If selected, people will be required to submit 15-20 photographs (which will be returned) and a brief bio of the honoree for marketing purposes. Call 474-0003.

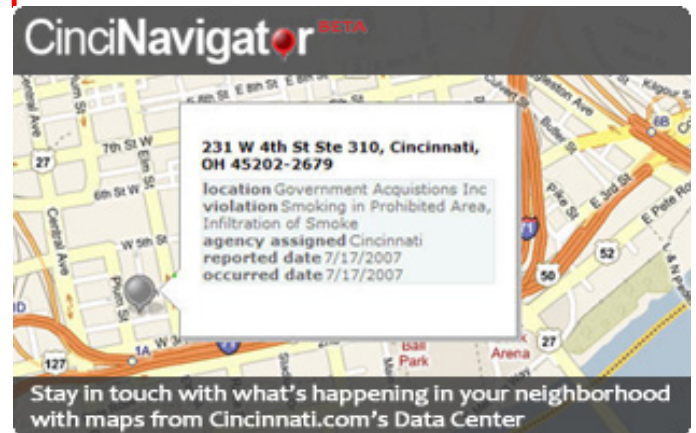

The event began with Nancy Horn, a loving wife and mother who lost her 14-month battle with brain cancer in September 2003.

Following the first Run to Remember event, the Horn family and friends invited others to "run to remember" their significant loved one. Today, the event has expanded to celebrate the lives of many cherished individuals as a way to honor their memory while fundraising for the district's playground fund.

The legacy of the Run to Remember honorees lives on through the all-inclusive playground at Beech Acres Park. In its four-year existence, the Run to Remember has raised more than $17,700 for the playground fund.

The park district has completed the first three phases of construction, and by next year's event, Phase 4 will be well under way. Future proceeds will benefit the Anderson Township Park District General Playground Fund.
