Santa spreads love all over Greater Anderson

BY JEREME SIMMONS | JSIMMONS@COMMUNITYPRESS.COM

ANDERSON TWP. - Santa Claus keeps a very busy schedule during this season, but he has made sure that Anderson Township will get more than one visit this year.

Santa will be escorted into the Anderson Towne Center on a fire engine "chariot" at 5 p.m., Saturday, Dec. 1, according to a Towne Center release, for the fourth annual Christmas tree lighting. Santa will take requests and sitting for photographs throughout the festivities, which begin at 4 p.m.

The holiday celebration will include giant reindeer and elves who will be juggling and creating balloon art according to the release. Music and dancing will be provided by the Anderson High School Showstoppers, Forest Hills String Quartet, The Anderson Community Band, Dancelot Dancers and others.

The official lighting of the tree, in the center walkway of the Towne Center, will be at 6 p.m. Businesses will provide refreshments throughout the event. Event sponsors include Kroger, Jamie Fox Landscaping and Caribou Coffee.

The Anderson Park District will have its second annual Santa's Workshop at Beech Acres Park RecPlex, 6915 Beechmont Ave., on Saturday Dec. 8, from 8:30 a.m. to 11:30 a.m. Kids should bring their wish lists. Activities include personal photographs with Santa, a sleigh ride and arts and crafts.

According to Allison Cottrill at the Anderson Park District, parents should register their children for a time slot to speak with Santa personally at AndersonParks.com or call 388-4513.

The program takes about 45 minutes according to a park informational release. The program is $10 for
