Good SPORTS CORNER

The Anderson Park District recognizes the value of youth sports on publicly owned facilities. As a community working together, we will do our best to deliver on these promises to our kids.

We promise to provide kids in sports the opportunity:

- For a Fun, Safe, Positive environment in which to participate.
- To participate under the supervision of positive role models that will help focus on developing skills, sportsmanship, teamwork, and how to win and lose graciously.
- To build self-confidence and self-esteem while respecting oneself and others.
- To continue to improve and enhance the quality of your youth sports experience.

We need all coaches, parents, and referees to do their part to help us keep our promise to kids.

Partners in promoting better sports for kids... better kids for life!
