

A stylized graphic with a blue border. The background is divided into three horizontal sections: a top green section, a middle yellow section, and a bottom green section. A dark green silhouette of a pine tree stands on a green hill in the lower-left. A red sun is partially visible behind the tree in the yellow section. The text "Anderson Park District" is written in a bold, white, sans-serif font with a black drop shadow, centered in the yellow section. Below it, "2005 Year In Review" is written in a plain black font.
